

SRI LANKA NATIONAL CRICKET TEAM TO PLAY AGAINST NEW ZEALAND IN HISTORIC SERIES IN SOUTH FLORIDA, USA.

Sri Lanka's famed national cricket team will play a series of matches against New Zealand's national team in a historic meeting in South Florida, USA, in May.

The three game series, the first to be played by full International Cricket Council (ICC) members in America, will be played at the Central Broward Regional Park Stadium in Lauderhill, Florida starting with a day/night game on Thursday May 20th 2010.

The two teams will then go head to head during two afternoon games on Saturday, May 22nd and Sunday May 23rd at the 20,000 capacity stadium, the only ICC approved cricket facility in North America. (Original article- Embassy of Sri Lanka USA)

Ticket information and pricing will be announced by USA Cricket shortly on its website www.usaca.org

More Information:

Embassy of Sri Lanka in Washington DC: <http://www.slembassyusa.org/>

USA Cricket Association: <http://usaca.org/content/20100422/usa-cricket-and-nzc-announce-historic-sri-lanka-vs-blackcaps-t20-series>